

Remarks

Other than an error mixing up claims 10 and 11 int eh clean copy of the amendment, applicant believes that these amendments were compliant at the time submitted but that the rules have changed in the interim. Therefore, applicant has moved the highlighted claims that were previously attached to the amendment into the body of the amendment itself. The remarks presented relative to these claims are not repeated as they were previously submitted in connection with amendment A.

The foregoing submission is believed to fully comply with the Notice of Non-Compliant Amendment.

Respectfully Submitted,
